

■ WHEELING ■

Head Start Elects Board, Council

The Board of Directors of Northern Panhandle Head Start Inc. recently held its annual corporation meeting. The annual report given recognized the accomplishments of the program, outlined child development outcomes and school readiness goals, offered program statistical and financial data, as well as highlighting family and community involvement. The report is available in electronic format on the agency's website, www.nphheadstart.org.

Northern Panhandle Head Start Inc. program provides comprehensive, early childhood development services for (income) eligible families with children ages birth to 5 including services to pregnant women who reside in Hancock, Brooke, Ohio, Marshall or Wetzel Counties of West Virginia. There is no fee for the program and transportation is provided in most areas. Contact the central office at 304-233-3290 for enrollment details about the upcoming August start-up.

Northern Panhandle Head Start Inc's Board of Directors include from left front, Linda Myers, treasurer, Marlene Midget, executive director, and Marguerite Wilson, president; back row, Christina Robbins, policy council liaison, Michael Hurst, policy council liaison, Marcia Allen, D. Kevin Coleman, vice-president, and Jan Futey. Absent were Melissa Reed, Eleanor White, secretary, and Brendan Welsh.

Members of the Policy Council include from left front, Michael Hurst, chairperson, Joyce Ueltschy, parliamentarian, Jennifer Courtwigh, treasurer, Christina Beck, secretary, Christina Robbins, vice-chairperson, and Marlene Midget, NPHS executive director; back row, Ashley Guiler, Cynthia Monroe, Joan Dayoub, community rep — Right from the Start, Robin Davis, Joanna Whitlatch, Tasia Farmer, Hope Burton, Irene Gonzalez-Murphy and Candi Cole.

Photos Provided